IN THE PAST 12 MONTHS
OVER HALF OF AMERICANS
say they have received a medical bill for a cost they thought was covered by insurance or report receiving an unexpected medical bill; more than a quarter had a medical bill go to a collection agency.

Four in 10 Americans say they fear the costs associated with a serious illness, more than the number who say they fear the illness itself.

Three quarters of Americans say that our country doesn’t get good value for what we spend on healthcare.

About half of Americans disapprove of the way their representative in Congress is handling the cost of healthcare.
